

NANCY ROSE

Parenting + Life Strategist

SPEAKER INTRODUCTION

Our speaker today is the author of the award winning and thought-provoking book, Raise the Child You've Got— Not the One You Want.

Nancy has studied the power of acceptance in parent-child relationships for three decades. She presents healthy ways for transforming a society filled with children who have failed to be accepted. Its practical tips help parents of intense kids and extend to people who care to create harmony in the home, the workplace, and the world.

Her mission is to make sure that children receive the validation and guidance they need in order to become the best version of who they are, and to help adults heal the wounds from lack of acceptance.

Please join me in welcoming Nancy Rose.